of men and women who really never know what it is to enjoy sound, vibrating health—who would be surprised to suddenly gain that exhilarating vitality that robust health brings.

Literally thousands without any particular sickness live in "general debility", as the doctors call it—have headaches, are tired and indifferent. To all such people we say with unmistakable earnestness—"Take Scott's Emulsion after meals for one month and allow its rare oil-food to enrich and enliven your blood, quicken your circulation, stimulate nutrition, and aid nature to develop that real red-blooded life that means activity, enjoyment, success."

Scott's Emulsion is not a drug, but a pleasant food- tonic—free from alcohol. One bottle may help you.

STRONGHOLD ACQUIRED FROM TURKEY IS CONSIDERED IN-VULNERABLE AND LIES CLOSE TO GREEK FRONTIER.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Monastir, picked as the latest war capital of Serbia, as a stronghold where the enemy is never expected to arrive, forms the subject of a geographical description just issued by the National Geographic society. The war primer reads as follows:

"Monastir is the last place in Serbia, hard upon the Greek frontier, and defended by lesser mountains on every hand. It was one of the most prized acquisitions made by the Serbians after the war in 1912 of the Balkan league with the Ottoman empire. By means of schools, propaganda, Serbian committees, and Serbian priests, the people of all this southern territory were long carefully prepared for an ultimate union with the little kingdom. The Serbians pursued the same tactics here that the Bulgarians and Greeks pursued for years in their endeavors to win the upper hand in the Turkish province of Macedonia. Monastir was to the Serbian ambitions what the port of Saloniki was to the Greeks and the Bulgarians.

"Monastir was the second city of Turkish Macedonia. It did a thriving business, even under Turkish rule, and the Serbians entertain great hopes for its future. Moreover, this mountain city is one of the most important strategic points in the Balkans, and, when under Turkish rule, it was made a base of military defense and offense of the same rank as Adrianople. Here were located the headquarters' office of a Turkish army corps; for the roads from the port of Saloniki, on the Aegean sea; from the port of Durazzo, on the Adriatic sea; from Nish, the ancient capital of Serbia; and from the important fortress, Adrianople, met and crossed here. The Serbians have strengthened the defensive works of the city since their occupation, and it is today an important factor in the keeping of ways open between Serbia and Greece and Serbia and Albania.

On High Elevation.

The city nestles in a bowl scooped in the mountain clusters at an altitude of 2,019 feet. To the west, the mountains rise to a height of more than 8,000 feet. All the mountain country around is heavily wooded, while the broad valley is carpeted with fruitful fields. The port of Saloniki, where the allied troops landed is but eighty-five miles distant to the southeast. Constantinople is 400 miles to the east, Belgrade is 230 miles to the north and Nish 155 miles. The nearest point of the Bulgarian frontier, at Strumitza, is only sixty-five miles away.

"A railway line connects Monastir and Saloniki, with which city most of the Serbian town's trade is done. The export products of all southern Serbia are assembled at this place and sent to the Grecian port, while the imports are contributed from the same center and from Ukup. The city has a population of 60,000 and an annual trade of the value of $2,000,000 during normal times. Considerable gold and silver work for export is done here, but the staples of Monastir's commerce are flour, grain, cloth, skins, tobacco and carpets. The town has large barracks, a military hospital, and a number of progressive educational institutions."

British officers declare that miners make the best soldiers. Strength, familiarity with explosives and cramped positions, and disregard for danger are their most admirable qualities.

TAKE SALTS TO
FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Backache or have Bladder Trouble.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a table-spoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acids of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

LAND OWNER AND TENANT EN-GAGE IN FRIENDLY SCUFFLE,
WHICH TERMINATES IN FATAL
SHOOTING OF TENANT.

McAlester, Okla., Nov. 2.—Lee Pollock, for seven years a deputy sheriff in Pittsburg county, is in the county jail here facing a murder charge as a result of a shooting which occurred two miles south of Kiowa Monday night. William Douthitt, victim of Pollock's gun, died at noon Tuesday. Four bullets pierced Douthitt's abdomen. Douthitt was a renter on Pollock's farm. They had started a friendly afternoon by drinking "Choc," according to Pollock's story, when an argument arose as to which was the better wrestler. The argument developed into a quarrel and physical violence. Then Douthitt drew a gun. They clinched, rolled off the porch and fell apart. When they regained their feet both held revolvers and both began shooting. Pollock escaped uninjured, but Douthitt was wounded four times, all four bullets entering the same place. The two men were on the farm alone. County officers tried to get a statement from Douthitt, but he was too weak to give much information.

Pollock served as deputy under two sheriffs, and in the list of eleven candidates in the last county primary was second in the race for the democratic nomination for sheriff. After the shooting he came to McAlester and surrendered.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr.
Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feed young—do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle.

Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities. You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

NORWAY'S MERCANTILE FLEET
DEVELOPING VAST WEALTH

Christiania, Norway, Nov. 3.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press).—Norway's mercantile fleet has developed surprisingly since the beginning of the war. Every available ship, including old sailing vessels, discarded years ago, has been refitted and mobilized for traffic, especially in the North Sea. High freight rates have made this trade so profitable that one or two successful trips pay for the entire cost of the ship, and ship owners have become vastly wealthy. Even the most conservative persons have yielded to the lure of speculation in ship stocks and have invested all their spare savings. Stock companies are formed daily and even before the ship has been delivered into the possession of the new company, shares have been sold and resold many times at increasing rates. The newspapers are warning investors against over-speculation, explaining that as soon as the war is over, scores of ships now tied up will again be available for traffic, that the high freight rates will drop and the overcapitalized ships will be unable to pay their present high rate of interest.

ESTATE OF MADERO FAMILY
NOW IN CARRAZA'S HANDS

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 2.—The Madero family property in Carranza controlled territory, amounting to many millions, has been confiscated, according to arrivals from Torreon, Monday. It was said that Albert Blair, general manager of the Madero estates, has been given twenty-four hours to leave Torreon, and asserting he was a British subject he refused appealing to the British embassy at Washington.

The Madero property includes extensive ranches at San Pedro de las Colonias, Parras and other points in Coahuila and includes a smelter at Torreon, Durango. Confiscation is said to have been based upon the support of the Madero family given to General Villa. Other reports say the Carranza officials are restoring to rightful
